SAVE THE DATE

for The European Animation Awards General Assembly

Tuesday 14th of June 2016

3pm-5pm

Salon Verdi - Impérial Palace

The European Animation Awards sets the goal of being the all professionals animation award main event throughout 40 countries. The first ceremony will be held in 2017, awarding the knowhow of european professionals . The awards will be voted by the EAA members, representing a large vision of European professionals. It aims to be considered as the highest animation film honor in Europe, similar to the famous Annie Awards in the US, which deeply inspired it.

Each year through Forums and festivals European artistic talents, authors, , directors, producers, distributors have many opportunities to meet each other but there is no specific "family" celebration, one that would bring together all professionals that contribute to the excellence of the European animation knowhow and expertise.

Peter Lord, Marie Bro, Didier Brunner, Paul Young, Jean-Paul Commin, Ton Crone, Olivier Catherin, Denis Walgenwitz, Doris Cleven, Juan Carlos Concha, Fabrice Fouquet, Odile Perrin, Stephan Roelants, Michael Rose & Luc Toutounghi invite you to the First General Assembly.

Don't miss this important european animation event !
